1) General rules under the Public conveyances Act or Hackney carriages Act in Bombay or Madras regarding inspection &c have not been issued. The only rules issued are about fixing rates of fares &c

2) A set of draft rules framed generally on extracts taken from the Rules issued for the Kolar Gold Fields Sanitary area under Notn No 4044-L.B.330-11-5 dated 2/10/13 is herewith put up. These rules will have to be brought into force into specified areas, and then such

3) The necessity for these rules has arisen from the fact that the mail Contractor of the Mysore-Mercara line refused to allow inspection of the ponies used by him, ~~in accordance with~~ when a Police Inspector went there for inspection in accordance with G.O No 3114-23 Dy 18-4-13. It has been found that such inspection cannot be enforced at present compulsorily; and hence some draft rules have to be framed under the Public Conveyances Regn.

4) The draft rules provide only for the immediate purpose of inspection of ponies etc + prohibition of the use of a pony unfit for such employment. The other portions re issue of licenses, fares, are not touched upon, as it is believed that, outside the brig to the necessity for such elaborate rules has not yet arisen. Hence the Coorg rules will be similar
